Date Supervision Commenced: 10/28/11

PETITIONING THE COURT

- ☐ To extend the term of supervision for _____ Years, for a total term of _____ Years.
☒ To modify the conditions of supervision as follows. The addition of the following special condition(s):

RESIDENTIAL REENTRY CENTER PLACEMENT (4 months WITHOUT weekend privileges)

You shall reside for a period of 4 months in a community corrections center, halfway house or similar residential facility and shall observe all the rules of that facility. You shall NOT be eligible for weekend privileges. The subsistence as required by the program is hereby waived.

CAUSE

Yanez-Sagastegui has violated several of the conditions of supervision as follows:

- On several occasions beginning in June 2012, Yanez-Sagastegui traveled out of the district of New Jersey (to Queens, New York) without permission from the probation officer. Yanez-Sagastegui also failed to report a change of residence within 72 hours. In fact, he relocated to 2414 95th Street, Queens, New York, without prior approval from the undersigned or the Eastern District of New York Probation Office.

- Yanez-Sagastegui failed to report new employment within 72 hours. On approximately June 15, 2012, he began employment at Amaru Pisco Bar, Jackson Heights, New York. Yanez-Sagastegui also failed to obtain prior approval from the Liquor Authority, Division of Alcoholic Beverage Control, to work at the bar.
- In February 2012, Yanez-Sagastegui tested positive for marijuana. The matter was reported to the court and he was instructed to participate in Narcotics Anonymous Meetings. Yanez-Sagastegui has failed to participate in the meetings since mid-June 2012.
- The judgement directs that Yanez-Sagastegui participate in English as a Second Language classes. Although he claimed to have participated in such classes at UCEDA, a school in Paterson, New Jersey, school officials indicated that he participated in only one class in June 2012.
- The judgment specifies that Yanez-Sagastegui maintain verifiable employment. He has repeatedly failed to abide by this condition by obtaining off-the-books employment.
- Finally, Yanez-Sagastegui has failed to report as directed on the following occasions: July 20, 2012; July 9, 2012; July 3, 2012; April 24, 2012; and March 13, 2012.

Respectfully submitted,

Denise Morales

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE
DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

Waiver of Hearing to Modify Conditions of Probation/Supervised Release or Extend Term of Supervision

I have been advised and understand that I am entitled by law to a hearing and assistance of counsel before any unfavorable change may be made in my Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release or my period of supervision being extended. By 'assistance of counsel,' I understand that I have the right to be represented at the hearing by counsel of my own choosing if I am able to retain counsel. I also understand that I have the right to request the court to appoint counsel to represent me at such a hearing at no cost to myself if I am not able to retain counsel of my own choosing.

I hereby voluntarily waive my statutory right to a hearing and to assistance of counsel. I also agree to the following modification of my Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release or to the proposed extension of my term of supervision:

To modify the conditions of supervision as follows. The addition of the following special condition(s):

RESIDENTIAL REENTRY CENTER PLACEMENT (4 months WITHOUT weekend privileges)

You shall reside for a period of 4 months in a community corrections center, halfway house or similar residential facility and shall observe all the rules of that facility. You shall NOT be eligible for weekend privileges. The subsistence as required by the program is hereby waived.

RE: Yanez-Sagastegui, Clark Daniel
Dkt. No. 12-00284-01
Request to Modify the Conditions of Supervision

Dear Judge Chesler:

On October 7, 2011, the Honorable Nicholas G. Garaufis, United States District Court Judge, in the Eastern District of New York, sentenced the aforementioned individual to twelve months and one day in custody, three years supervised release and a $100 special assessment upon his conviction for Importation of Cocaine. Special conditions of supervision imposed were the preclusion of possessing a firearm; drug testing/treatment; maintaining full-time verifiable employment and/or participate in an educational or vocational training program as directed by the probation department; participation in an English as a Second Language course; not re-entering the United States illegally if deported. On October 28, 2011, following his release from custody, the offender began the period of supervision in the District of New Jersey. On May 8, 2012, this district was granted jurisdiction of the case.

The purpose of this correspondence is to report that Yanez-Sagastegui has violated several of the conditions of supervised release, as outlined in the attached Probation Form 12B, Request to Modify the Conditions or Term of Supervision with Consent of the Offender. We submit that the non-compliance be addressed via a sanction of four months of community confinement. This sanction would also address his current lack of a stable residence.

Yanez-Sagastegui agreed to the modification, and has agreed to waive his right to a hearing. Unless Your Honor considers otherwise, we ask that you review the attached Probation Form 49, Waiver of Hearing to Modify Conditions of Supervised Release, and sign the attached Probation Form 12B, Request for Modifying the Conditions or Term of Supervision with Consent of the Offender, authorizing the modification.

As always, we are available to discuss this matter. The undersigned can be reached at (973) 445-8522.

Very truly yours,

WILFREDO TORRES, Chief
U.S. Probation Officer
